NUART ABERDEEN 22-26 APRIL 2026

WHAT IS NUART ABERDEEN?

Nuart Aberdeen is an award-winning international street art festival that transforms the city into a vibrant open-air gallery. Each year, world-renowned street artists create striking murals, installations and interventions across Aberdeen's streets, all free for the public to enjoy.

Launched in 2017, Scotland's National Street Art festival attracts tens of thousands of visitors to the city every year and leaves a lasting cultural legacy, with artworks that can be explored year-round.

WALKING TOURS

Discover Aberdeen through street art with Nuart Aberdeen.

Wander through the city on foot, uncover hidden corners, join a guided walking tour to hear the stories behind the murals, or explore at your own pace with the Nuart Aberdeen dynamic map - your perfect companion for a self-guided art trail through the city.

With stunning murals that remain year-round, Nuart Aberdeen offers an inspiring reason to visit – and return again.

Guided tours are seasonal and generally operate at weekends from April to September.
